It's always the right time for Corsica

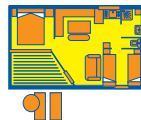

I'm escaping to an island...!

Sunshine, nature and authenticity; living like at the beginning of time with the tweeting of the birds... at the crossroads to discover the island, the sea and the mountains which have been carefully protected...! In the sweet-smelling flora, "Riva Bella, paradise on the waterfront", the air smells good and I'm breathing it in! Flora, fauna, minerals, everything is alive! Freedom, charm, a thousand things to do, visit Corsica, so many passions to live for! I'm forgetting about everything else and recharging my batteries... Nature, Well-being and Cosiness in its purest state!

I live in a natural setting, a stone's throw away from the sea...

Corsica: spring, autumn, winter... romantic holidays!

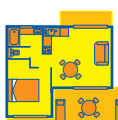

Type 4 réve :

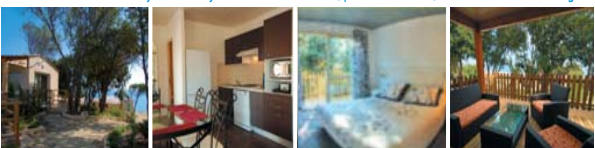

In the second row, no more than 80 m from the sea. Air-conditioned bungalow, about 35 m² with 2 bedrooms, one double and one with three beds. Shower room with basin and separate WC. Living room with kitchen area, television, terrace with garden furniture.

60 metres from the sea, in total harmony with nature on the slope of a forested dune, our traditionally-constructed type 5 accommodation is air conditioned and heated (also sound and heat insulated).
